TURKEY— OVERVIEW OF THE SITUATION WITH MIGRANTS

Quarterly report (March 2017)

According to the latest available figures from the Turkish Directorate General of Migration Management (DGMM) there are currently an estimated 3.2 million foreign nationals present in Turkish territory seeking international protection. Most are Syrians (2,969,669 individuals) who are granted temporary protection status, while according to UNHCR 306,791 asylum seekers and refugees from countries including Iraq, Afghanistan, Iran and Somalia constitute another significant group of foreign nationals requiring Turkish humanitarian and legal protection. Unlike the previous reporting period, since January 2017 the number of Syrians residing in camps has decreased by about 3 thousand most probably due to the improving weather conditions.

Residence Permit (RP)

Foreigners who wish to stay in Turkey beyond the duration of a visa or visa exemption i.e. longer than ninety days must obtain a residence permit. There are 530,606 residence permit holders in Turkey within various categories of the residence permit. Types of residency permits are: a) short-term residence permit; b) family residence permit; c) student residence permit; d) long-term residence permit; e) humanitarian residence permit; f) victim of human trafficking residence permit and working permits as residence permit.
TURKEY—OVERVIEW OF THE SITUATION WITH MIGRANTS
Quarterly report (March 2017)

Categories of the Foreigners in Turkey

Residence Permit (RP):

244,034 short-term residence holders compose the majority of all residence permit holders. The short-term residence holder number comparing with previous quarterly report has increased for 41,631 individuals. The RP holders are followed by 63,546 family residence permit holders. Additionally, there are 61,116 student residence permit holders, and 56,591 work permits granting the right to residence. Also 35,930 “other” residence permits were also granted.

The exact number of humanitarian residence permit holders is not available, as this category is aggregated within the ‘other’ category. However, field experience and discussions with DGMM have shown that humanitarian residence permit holders are few thousands and are predominantly Iraqi nationals. Humanitarian Residence Permits are granted under certain circumstances in which foreign nationals are allowed to enter into and stay in Turkey, due to an emergency situation. The humanitarian residence permit is granted, renewed and cancelled by the governorates, subject of the approval from the Ministry of Interior (MoI).
According to UNHCR data, another significant group of foreign nationals requiring international protection in Turkey are 306,791 asylum seekers and refugees consisting of different nationalities, but mainly coming from Iraq, Afghanistan, Iran, Somalia and other countries. There has been an increase of 15,582 individuals in this reporting period comparing with the figure of 291,209 as of 30 December 2016.

According to DGMM, 146,485 irregular migrants of different nationalities were apprehended in Turkey during 2015. Most irregular migrants entered the Turkish territory from war-torn Syria and Iraq and transited or resided in Turkey before attempting to cross the Aegean Sea to Europe. The top three categories in 2016 are from Syria, Afghanistan and Iraq. According to DGMM figures, 174,466 irregular migrants and 3,314 migrant smugglers has been recorded in 2016.
According to Turkish Coast Guard (TCG) daily reports, TCG apprehended 2,976 irregular migrants at sea and registered 12 fatalities in the first three months of 2017. During the reporting period, there has been an decrease of 2,098 apprehended persons on sea by TCG compared to previous reporting period.

Data source: DGMM and European Commission EU-Turkey Agreement State of Play.
The agreement’s aim was to replace disorganized and irregular migratory flows by organized and safe pathways to European countries, in this regard, it is agreed on that for every Syrian being returned to Turkey from the Greek islands, another Syrian will be resettled to Europe from Turkey directly.

According to DGMM data released on 6th of April 2017 since 4th of April 2016 the number of Syrians resettled in European countries under the one-to-one agreement is 4,637 persons and the country breakdown is shown in the next chart.

Data based on DGMM figures.
There are 22 “Temporary Accommodation Centers” for migrants under Temporary Protection (mainly for Syrians under TP) dispersed in 10 cities in Turkey namely Şanlıurfa, Gaziantep, Kilis, Kahramanmaraş, Mardin, Hatay, Adana, Adıyaman, Osmaniye and Malatya run by Disaster and Emergency Management Presidency (AFAD). According to DGMM statistics, a total population of 255,339 are currently residing in the camps. According to AFAD a number of 7,263 Iraqis under Humanitarian Protection (mainly Yezidis and Assyrians ethnic groups) are also residing in camps in Mardin and Kahramanmaraş close to Gaziantep.

*Data based on DGMM as of 06.04.2017 and AFAD
Removal centers host and control foreigners under administrative detention. 22 removal centers are operating in the provinces of Kirklareli, Edirne, Tekirdag, Istanbul, Kayseri, Canakkale, Kocaeli, Bursa, Izmir, Aydin, Antalya, Kirikkale, Adana, Hatay, Gaziantep, Erzurum, Van and Mugla. In total, the removal centers can currently hold 7,216 persons. DGMM reported that by October 2017 removal center capacity is anticipated to increase to 14,536 persons with extensions to current facilities and new centers.

Another type of accommodation facility - the Reception and Accommodation Center - are designed to host vulnerable migrants for a temporary period. Currently, approximately 176 people can be hosted in these facilities.
According to DGMM, fewer victims of trafficking have been identified over the past decade. 181 individuals were identified in 2016 and 81 in 2017 so far.

Four shelters for victims of trafficking are operational with a total capacity of 28 individuals. Three shelters are operated by NGO Human Resources Development Foundation, Ankara Municipality and DGMM.
