

Education in Emergencies Analysis Framework (DRAFT)

The Education in emergencies Analysis Framework was designed in 2018 based on a review of education existing guidance and needs assessment reports. The Framework represents the different topics and sub-topics generally being measured during education needs assessment. It is a working model and does not reflect a global endorsement by the Education Cluster.

